I can recite a poem taught by heart.
I can prepare poems and plays to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone, volume and action.
I can ask questions to improve my understanding.
Mastery Targets:
I choose to read widely for pleasure and for different purposes and do so outside lesson time because I want to.
I can express my own ideas about a text, supporting my ideas with evidence from the text and explaining why the evidence justifies my opinion.
I can compare texts by the same writer, drawing out the similarities and differences and compare and evaluate different books.
I make use of effective scanning and text marking to aid succinct summaries of key ideas so that information is identified.
